U.S. Warplanes Sink Or Damage 15 Boats In Air Strike 120 Miles Inside N. Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Mounting public pressure and an internal feud were climaxed today by the resignation of South Viet Nam's four-month-old civilian government, which returned power to the generals.

It marked the eighth change of government in the war-torn country since strongman President Ngo Dinh Diem was overthrown and assassinated less than 20 months ago.

Prime Minister Phan Huy Quat and Chief of State Phan Khanh Suu, who had clashed over a cabinet shakeup, agreed to stay on in caretaker roles with other members of the government.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. warplanes sank or damaged 15 boats today in an air strike about 120 miles inside North Viet Nam.

A U.S. military spokesman said the vessels opened fire on the four U.S. Air Force Thunderchiefs just before they attacked. The planes dropped eight tons of bombs on the boats during the 30-minute strike.

In another raid over North Viet Nam, the spokesman said 25 F-105 Thunderchiefs hammered several targets about 130 miles southwest of Hanoi near the Laotian border. They destroyed three buildings at the Muong Sen communications site and seven military barracks.

30 TONS OF BOMBS

The planes dropped 30 tons of bombs on the targets. Light automatic weapons fire was encountered, but all the planes returned safely, the spokesman said.

Two U.S. Navy A1 Skyraiders cratered both approaches to a three-span steel bridge in an attack along Route 7 about 150 miles southwest of the North Vietnamese capital. Both planes returned safely to the carrier Midway.

In air strikes inside South Viet Nam, the spokesman said U.S. Navy planes flew some 70 sorties Friday against Viet Cong positions in the southernmost Fourth Army Corps area.

At Least 13 Lose Lives In Flash Flood

By MIKE COCHRAN
SANDERSON, Tex. (AP) — Trucks with emergency supplies already were raising dust today as a search went on for more bodies in mud-caked Sanderson, devastated by a flash flood which took at least 13 lives.

State Police said 16 other persons were unaccounted for and the death toll was almost certain to mount.

An 11-inch cloudburst sent water gushing 15 feet deep through sluice-like Sanderson Canyon, demolishing 75 houses and a dozen business places, and isolated this far West Texas town for hours Friday. Ironically, the rainfall in this arid spot averages only 16 inches a year.

22-Year-Old College Grad, Suspected As Slayer Of Four In Bank Holdup, Surrenders

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — "I'm tired of running. I want to surrender."

Duane Pope, 22 years old and fresh out of college, said it twice Friday, first to the president of his college and then in a telephone call to police. By surrendering, Pope ended a nationwide search that began a week earlier when the president and two employees of a Big Springs, Neb., bank were shot to death during a holdup.

The FBI told charge of Pope shortly after his surrender and within 90 minutes had him arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Lee Cisel. He then was jailed in lieu of $100,000 bond.

NO COMMENT

The FBI would not comment on what, if anything, Pope said about the June 4 robbery of the Farmers State Bank of Big Springs when $1,598 was taken or about the deaths of the three employees and serious wounding of a fourth.

Myers, New Oxford R. 2.

Damage totaled $250 in an accident Friday morning at 9 o'clock a half mile west of New Oxford on the Lincoln Highway.

Newly Promoted Spacemen Face "Toughest" Missions In Parades And Celebrations

By HAROLD R. WILLIAMS
AP Aerospace Writer
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) —

America's space twins prepared today for what fellow astronauts have called "the toughest part of the mission"—the inevitable round of receptions, parades and celebrations.

Astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II relaxed at their homes near the Manned Space Center in Houston, resting for the busy week ahead.

It starts Monday with a ticker tape parade in Chicago. There's a homecoming celebration Tuesday at the University of Michigan, and hometown welcomes Wednesday in Jackson, Mich., for McDivitt, and in San Antonio, Tex., for White.

WINS PROMOTION

McDivitt and White got a big surprise Friday — a "little something" from President Johnson in the way of promotions. They changed their gold Assemblyman Francis Worley Friday evening asked the Latimore Twp. School Board to turn over $2,258.15, he said it has received from the state in the past seven years while his two sons were enrolled in school districts other than the Bermudian Springs District, of which he is a resident.

The board tabled the matter for legal study.

Worley, who refrained from making any statement or comment, was represented by Atty. William H. Nast Jr., Harrisburg, who claimed that the Latimore Twp. board was guilty of "unjust enrichment" in accepting and retaining monies from the state during the periods in which Worley's sons were enrolled in schools in York County and Harrisburg.

REFUSE TO ACT

Nast presented a resolution which he urged the board to accept providing for reimbursement to the Northern Joint School District of York County in the amount of $703.45 and to the city of Harrisburg School District in the amount of $1,554.70. The Latimore Twp. School District received these amounts from the state under the subsidy plan. The board refused to take action.

The attorney said that Worley had paid $1,145.32 to the Northern School District from 1958-1962 and $4,244.32 to the Harrisburg City School District from 1960-1965. In the past 10 years the Worley boys, Francis Jr. and Daniel, have attended schools in York Springs, Northern School District, Dillsburg; Harrisburg Academy, Camp Curtin Junior High School and William Penn Senior High School. They will be graduated Monday from William Penn High School.

COULD CUT COST

Nast said his client was not seeking reimbursement for tuition he had paid personally, but was asking that the school board return to the two school districts in which the boys were enrolled the monies received as the "resident school district." He told The Gettysburg Times this morning by telephone that Worley's cost in educating his sons at other schools would have been reduced if the state subsidy had not been retained by the Latimore board. The resolution he presented contained a clause asking that the amounts be forwarded to the two districts and provided that the Harrisburg and Northern Districts would "reimburse Mr. Worley."

He presented a statement from the Northern District asking for the reimbursement and said that Worley will obtain a statement from the Harrisburg district to be presented to the Latimore board later.

ADOPT BUDGET

The appeal came on the heels of the board's formal adoption of a budget of $134,029 for the 1965-66 school term as the township's share of education expenses in the Bermudian Springs Joint School System of which it is a member. The budget was adopted on a tax rate of 45 mills on real estate, per capita rates of $5 and $5, a one percent real estate transfer tax and 18 percent occupation assessment. Members of the board indicated that payment of the more than $2,000 sought by Worley would require a tax increase on residents of the township.

Section 1608 of the Pennsylvania School Code provides that pupils major's leaves on their Air Force tunics to the silver of lieutenant colonels.

The President's first visit to the Manned Spacecraft Center resulted from a decision made by McDivitt and White. They had been given a choice of receiving the presidential congratulations at the center or the LBJ Ranch. They chose Houston so fellow employees at the center could share the congratulations.

SUPERVISE MOVE

Johnson's announcement of the on-the-spot promotions brought shocked expressions to the spacemen and their wives. The astronauts became majors only last December.

While speaking before 4,000 space center employees who sweltered under a hot Texas sun, Johnson also promoted Air Force Maj. L. Gordon Cooper and Virgil I. Grissom to lieutenant colonel.

ITALIAN REDS VIE FOR VACANT LEADER POST

By GERALD MILLER

ROME, (AP)—Italy's Communist party is seething with open differences as it approaches a national congress.

The congress is to be held before the end of the year and party directors had hoped to go into it showing a face of untroubled unity.

But tensions that have long bubbled beneath the surface have recently burst into the open, revealing two main factions jockeying for power in the area left vacant by Palmiro Togliatti, the long-time party chief who died last August.

For a time after Togliatti's death, party leaders kept their differences under wraps. While Togliatti lived, his power was unquestioned. His right-hand man, Luigi Longo, succeeded him on a provisional basis. He must be confirmed or replaced by the party congress, the first since Togliatti's death.

INVOLVED DISPUTE

Under Longo, two faction leaders, Pietro Ingrao and Giorgio Amendola, have become involved in an increasingly bitter dispute.

Ingrao was reported arguing that the party must stick to its traditional ideals and thrust itself to the fore among the country's Communist-socialist leftist forces.

Amendola was said to be urging a more moderate approach, committing the Communist party to working for a leftist unity in which it would be the accepted but not necessarily absolute leader. Thus far, Amendola has had the upper hand, with a recent Central Committee communiqué reflecting his views.

WANTS TOUGH POLICY

The differences had become apparent at last month's national meeting in Genoa of Communist union leaders. There, Ingrao pleaded for a new get-tough policy in the big General Confederation of Italian labor, where the Communists work with Socialists. Amendola argued against this, saying the policy should be to avoid antagonizing the Socialists. The Genoa conference favored Amendola.

In the growing party rivalry Longo has emerged as a kind of peacemaker between the two factions. In the end this may insure the party leadership for him as the best man to keep internal antagonisms from getting out of hand.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most baseball teams use good hitting, fielding and pitching to win. The Pittsburgh Red Sox have another talent—persistence.

The Sox had to forge leads three times Friday before making the final one stick as they whipped the Williamsport Mets, 5-3, and won the opening game of their showdown series for the Eastern League lead.

The teams had been tied for first place prior to the opener of the four-game set at Williamsport.

Elmira whitewashed Reading, 2-0, and York defeated Springfield, 1-0, in other EL games Friday.

Two and three feet of mud stood in ruined homes and stores. Debris was left in jumbled heaps 8 to 10 feet tall.

A channel 10 feet deep was carved along the course of a normally dry creek in a canyon crossing Sanderson, a town of 2,350 which is 20 miles from the Mexican border about halfway between San Antonio and El Paso.

All the destruction was on the south side of U.S. 90, which also is the main street.

FBI Agent Karl Dissly said Pope apparently had traveled extensively since he drove his 1939 Buick convertible to Wichita sometime before Monday. He said Pope had been in Dallas; San Diego; Tijuana, Mex.; and Las Vegas since then. Pope flew here from Las Vegas Friday, Dissly said.

Big Springs is about 400 miles north of Roxbury. The bank was robbed around noon by a lone, well-dressed bandit. Shot dead as they lay on the floor at the robber's command were Andreas Kjeldgaard, 77, the president; Glenn Hendrickson, 59, the cashier and Lois Ann Hothan, 35, a bookkeeper. Franklin Kjeldgaard, 25, assistant cashier and Andreas' nephew, also was shot twice but he survived. He was taken to a Denver hospital.

Pope, one of eight children, had been known as an extremely quiet young man. He was something of a gun collector, enjoyed tinkering with his vintage car and was a good athlete. He is 6-foot-2 and weighs 190.

WAS GRID STAR

At McPherson College he played football well enough to make an all-conference team. His grades were average and he received a bachelor's degree in industrial arts from Dr. Bittinger May 30.

He rented a car in nearby Salina on June 3. The day after the robbery the car was left in front of the rental agency with about 1,000 miles on the speedometer. On June 6, the FBI charged Pope with bank robbery and shooting of Franklin Kjeldgaard. The state placed the murder charges against Pope.

Tuesday, the vintage car was found in Wichita.

As the search intensified, there were reports from all parts of the country that he had been sighted. Friday, the FBI placed him on its 10-most-wanted list, setting the time at 5:30 p.m. EST. By that time he already had surrendered.

Today's Talk

THE LITTLE COURTESIES
To me the little courtesies of every day life grow bigger the longer I live. Their significance is striking when we find these courtesies where we least expect them. You see we look for them as a matter of course among those of our kind, but even there they are all too many times lacking, so that when we discover them otherwise, their importance is emphasized and we are made to feel our own sense of neglect.

The cheerful "Good Morning" and "Good Night," the "Thank You," the "Please," and the "I'm Sorry" — each weaves itself into a kindly fabric of character conduct. Courteous waiters in an eating place, clerks in a store, or salesmen on the road, all carry with them and their personalities something that invites or repels, something that marks them for advancement or something that marks up a loss to those whom they serve.

In a mid-western city there is a great department store that celebrates each year its "Courtesy Day" — and I am of the opinion that such a store can be depended upon to celebrate such a day every day of the year. I believe on that day every employee wears a white carnation! The further to emphasize the importance that this store places upon courtesy.

We never know when we are serving someone of great importance. That's why we should be courteous to all, no matter how humble that person might appear. I recall the instance of a wealthy New York man who visited a boys' camp, and the boys were so nice and kind to him — he was a cripple by the way — that when he got back to his home he made out a check to build a new boat-house, also for some things that the camp seemed to need, in appreciation for the courtesies rendered him on his visit.

Many a business has been built to great success with little more than courtesy as an initial capital. We return, again and again, to the store where we are treated with courtesy, and tell others to trade at such a place. Courtesy is contagious, too!

CHALLENGE
Heed no sly and whispered word
Save to challenge and defeat it.
When disloyal speech is heard
Prompt and ready be to meet it.

Scorn the man who would betray.
Poisonous the brew he's steeping.
Coldly send him on his way.
Friendship false is not worth keeping.
God has blessed our glorious land.
Made it on to love and cherish.
Fortright then for freedom stand.
Lest our way of life shall perish.

Freedom withers under might,
Tyrants use their force to end it.
When it's threatened, day or night
With your heart and mind defend it.

DRYSDALE IS FIRST TO WIN 11 THIS YEAR

Don Drysdale go boom.

The 6-foot-6 Los Angeles ace hit the dirt in the first inning, then came back to hit the jack-pot in the eighth as the Dodgers edged the New York Mets 2-1 Friday night.

Drysdale fell down in front of 55,023, largest crowd in the majors this season, while pitching to Jesse Gonder, the third batter in the first inning.

But he got up, took a few practice pitches and struck out Gonder.

FIRST TO WIN 11

The 28-year-old right-hander downed the Mets on four hits and became the first pitcher in the majors to win 11 games.

He gained the triumph by going boom again. This time, though, he did it with his bat and produced his third home run of the season.

The eighth-inning blow came on a 3-2 pitch off Warren Spahn. Drysdale has won nine of his last 10 games and has lost only three times this season.

Elsewhere in the National League, Pittsburgh trimmed San Francisco 5-3, Milwaukee walloped St. Louis 8-2, Cincinnati edged Chicago 4-3 and Philadelphia nipped Houston 6-5 in 10 innings.

The Pirates won their seventh straight game and 19th of 21, scoring three runs in the first inning on Willie Stargell's two-run triple and Donn Clendenon's sacrifice fly and two in the second on Jim Pagnaroni's homer. The Giants' Willie Mays clouted his 19th homer, a three-run blast, in the third.

BRAVES WIN AGAIN

Felipe Alou snapped a 2-2 tie with a three-run homer in the Milwaukee seventh, and the Braves went on to win their eighth game in the last 10. The Braves added two runs in the eighth with the help of Tracy Stallard's wildness. The Cardinal hurler hit one batter and tossed two wild pitches.

The Reds edged the Cubs on Gordy Coleman's two-run homer in the ninth inning. Coleman also doubled across a run in the first. The Cubs went ahead 3-2 in the sixth, Ernie Banks doubling in one run and scoring another.

INSIDE PARK HOMER

Johnny Callison lashed an inside-the-park home run in the 10th inning for the Philadelphia victory. Callison's two-out blow bounced off the scoreboard in right-center field. Houston had tied the game 5-5 in the ninth on Lee Maye's triple and Walt Bond's sacrifice fly.

Optimist Boys' League

The Bullets won their second game in as many starts by topping the Rifles 4-1 Friday evening. N. Fair, winning pitcher, allowed but two hits and whiffed no less than 21. His opponent, C. Redding, also turned in a fine mound performance in striking out 12 and allowing but four hits, two of which were by H. Heflin. One of Heflin's blows was a triple. Redding contributed to his own effort with a home run.

Gettysburg Little League

Jeff Chamberlain and Jack Cramer hooked up in a fine pitchers' battle Friday evening with the former and the Rotary team winning 3-1.

Rotary scored in the second inning on an error, single by Hays and infield out. They added two in the fifth on a pair of walks and two singles.

In the sixth the Moose spoiled Chamberlain's bid for a shutout. A hit batsman, ground out and run-scoring single by Jim Lohuis produced the run, Lohuis being caught at second as he attempted to stretch his hit into a double.

ANGELES GET 13 HITS BUT BOW TO YANKS 6-4

By MIKE RATHET

The New York Yankees are higher today than at any time in the last four weeks.

The defending American League champions, who have been bogged down in the second division since April, continued their most sustained drive of the season Friday night as Al Downing staggered to a 13-hit, 6-4 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

The triumph was the sixth in the last seven games for the Yankees. It hopped them over Boston into seventh place for the first time since May 15 and left them only one-half game to the rear of the sixth-place Angels.

TWO WIN TWO

At the top of the league, meanwhile, the first-place Minnesota Twins and runner-up Chicago White Sox remained a ½ length apart, each sweeping two-night doubleheaders.

The Twins swept Detroit in a pair of extra inning games, winning both by 5-4 scores, the opener in 10 innings and the nightcap in 12 as Jimmie Hall produced the decisive run in each.

Reliever Eddie Fisher played the key role for the White Sox, saving Juan Pizarro's first victory of the season in a 5-2 opening game triumph over Washington, then turning up the winner in a 5-4, 10-inning second game triumph.

Elsewhere, Kansas City downed Cleveland 5-2 behind Rollie Sheldon's first victory and Jim Landis' first homer, and Baltimore edged Boston 5-4 on John Orsino's two-run homer.

YANKS OUTHIT
The Yankees, outhit 13-10, got the job done with a pair of run-scoring doubles by Roger Maris, a run-producing double by Doc Edwards and singles by Bobby Richardson and Cleve Boyer that drove in runs.

The Twins tied the opener in the ninth on two walks by Larry Sherry, a sacrifice and a wild pitch by Terry Fox that let Don Mincher score. Then, in the 10th, Hall brought in the winner with a sacrifice fly after singles by Sandy Valdespino and Frank Kastro plus a sacrifice by Tony Oliva.

Hall capped a three-run outburst in the 12th inning of the nightcap with a run-producing triple after Bob Allison's single and a sacrifice fly by Kastro had brought the first two runs across. Hall's triple proved decisive when Jim Northrup hit a two-run homer in the Tigers' half.

CLOUTS 10TH HOMER

Harmon Killebrew drove in the first two Minnesota runs with his 10th homer and a single, but homers by George Thomas and Don Demeter pulled Detroit into a tie.

Fisher picked up his 13th save in the opener against the Senators, coming on for Pizarro in the sixth inning. The victory for Pizarro, a 19-game winner last season, squared his record at 1-1. Fisher got the victory in the nightcap for a 6-1 record when Don Buford led off the 10th with a homer.

Danny Carter hit a homer in each game for the White Sox, his fifth inning shot in the opener proving the decisive run. Landis drove in three runs with a two-run single in the second inning and a solo homer in the seventh for the A's while Sheldon, making his fifth start since he was acquired from the Yankees, checked the Indians on seven hits.

Orsino's two-run homer in the fourth inning closed out the scoring in the Orioles-Red Sox game. Felix Mantilla and Lee Thomas homered for Boston before Baltimore reliever Harvey Haddix and Stu Miller pitched shutout ball over the last six innings.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Reports that the Philadelphia Phillies were trying to bolster their left handed pitching by trading second baseman Tony Taylor to the New York Mets for pitcher Al Jackson were denied by the Phillies Friday.

Rumors of such a trade circulated around Connie Mack Stadium during Friday night's Phillies-Houston game.

General Manager John Quinn said he had not traded Taylor to the Mets for Jackson, and Taylor, reached at home said, "I don't know anything about it."

CLEVELAND (AP) — Tommy Aaron, the likeable Georgia pro, carried a two-stroke lead today into the third round of the $135,000 Cleveland Open golf tournament.

The 28-year-old Aaron had his sights set on the big $25,000 prize, a purse that could put him among the top five money makers on the tour.

He carded a four-under-par 67 Friday for a 36-hole total of 135.

Today's field was trimmed to 82 after a score of 146 or better was needed to stay in the competition's final 36 holes.

CASUALTIES

Among the casualties were U.S. Open champion Ken Venturi, who finished with 150, Tommy Bolt, Tommy Jacobs and Doug Sanders.

PGA king Bobby Nichols just squeezed in when he shot a 71 for a 146 total.

Randy Glover showed a 139 while Mason Rudolph, Larry Mowry, Julius Boros, Don Stickney and Billy Casper were bracketed at 140.

Fairfield Little League

A six-run third inning sparked the undefeated Pirates to their fifth straight victory Friday evening, the league-leaders downing the Giants 11-1. High lighting the big frame were a home run by Dick Fite and a double by Terry Straul and a number of bases on balls.

The Giants, losing their second game against as many victories, tallied their lone run in the top of the fifth on a pair of walks and a single by Jeff Rebert. Bob Harbaugh collected two of the losers' four hits.

By JACK LYNCH
Associated Press Writer
HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton's highway spending proposals for the fiscal year beginning July 1 were announced this week with the usual fanfare, including record claims and promises of better things to come.

In painting the brightest possible picture, the governor's budget and an accompanying statement were little different than those of all governors since Gifford Pinchot established a state highway system 60 years ago.

But the Scranton Administration may have gilded the lily in pointing to an undisputed record highway construction year just ending and a chance for another record in the coming year.

INFLATED FIGURES

The most disturbing feature of the governor's budget document was the inflation of construction figures for the 1963-64 fiscal year, the first full period under his control.

Official figures obtained last December showed that total construction in the 1963-64 year amounted to $215 million, but the new budget document lists the amount at $223 million.

A recheck of the official records made after the governor's budget was released still shows that only $215 million was spent.

One expert said the budget makers apparently added $8 million committed during the year concerned but not actually paid until later. This is like buying a $200 washing machine on a 24-month installment plan and claiming you spent the $200 in one year.

CLOSE TO '62 RECORD

One possible reason is that the $223 million figure looks a lot closer to the $229.8 million construction record set in the 1962-63 fiscal year by the Democratic Lawrence administration.

It wasn't until this year that the Republican Scranton administration was able to top that record with spending of $235.9 million.

However, the Highway Department's public information section and the governor himself had been claiming a record of $230.2 million for 1964.

But they were talking about a calendar year and comparing it with prior fiscal years. This was the only way they could claim a record over the Lawrence figure.

FISCAL DIFFERENCE

The trouble with the calendar year computation is that all of state government runs on a fiscal year and in no other area are the conversions made for comparative purposes.

Scranton bluntly said in his budget message that the "tally must be kept by calendar year for what are, quite frankly, political purposes, since fiscal years cross administration jurisdictions."

That reasoning has a flaw, too, because a new governor, coming in at the start of a calendar year, has little or no control over spending for the first six months. The credit or the blame has to go to the preceding governor who formulated the fiscal budget.

PICKETS SCALE GIRARD WALLS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Five pickets protesting the all-white status of Girard College, scaled the wall of the boys' school and entered its grounds today.

Policemen arrested them and six others who boosted them over the stone walls. All were charged with inciting to riot, and breach of the peace. The five who made it over the walls were also charged with trespassing. All are Negroes, said police.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored people has been picketing the boys' school since May 1, protesting its all-white policy. The school, founded under the will of colonial-day financier Stephen Girard, is restricted to white, male orphans.

The five made it over the wall about 1:15 a. m., policemen said. A previous attempt last May 3 failed.

Policemen said no ladders were used in today's successful attempt. The school is located in the heart of a predominantly Negro section of north Philadelphia.

ASKS CONTROL OF MILK PRICE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A milk industry spokesman has called for continued milk price controls, and at the same time outlined a program to improve them.

"Removal of controls would result in marketing confusion which would be detrimental to the public as a whole and to all segments of the industry," C. J. Milroth, executive director of the Greater Pittsburgh Dairy Industry Association, said Friday. "Cows cannot be shut down like steel mills or fabricating plants and the flow of milk must be handled regardless of demand," he said.

Milroth was among several witnesses appearing at a hearing held by a 12-member committee of the state House and Senate.

He suggested a system of producer controls, addition of auditors, investigators and lawyers to the Milk Control Commission staff, development of a uniform accounting system, periodic reports to the public, and full examination of evidence offered by individual dealers or other interested parties.

The hearing, which opened Thursday, was recessed until June 24.

A broker was originally a retailer of goods belonging to another.

30,000 State Dairymen Strive To Develop Herds For Economic Operation

THOMAS E. PIPER

Adams County Farm Agent June is "Dairy Month" and the dairy industry is vitally important in Adams County and to all of Pennsylvania. Dairymen are Pennsylvania's largest single farm enterprise and accounts for 41 percent of our gross farm income. Pennsylvania is a leader in dairying. A total of about 7,098,000 lbs. of milk is produced annually with a value of around $330,000,000. Pennsylvania ranks fifth in the production of milk, third in the amount consumed and first in the manufacture of ice cream.

Thomas E. Piper

Thirty thousand dairy farmers in Pennsylvania are progressive and are producing milk efficiently and economically. They have cleaned their herds of tuberculosis and brucellosis and spend a lot of time and money on preventing any diseases from entering their herds.

KEEP CLOSE RECORDS

Pennsylvania dairymen are interested in records and studying their herds. There are 200 dairy herd improvement supervisors keeping records on approximately 6,000 herds. These are demonstrations to show the results of good feeding, breeding and management practices. Artificial breeding has developed rapidly so that more dairymen are able to have results of outstanding sires. During 1964 over 600,000 cows were bred artificially in Pennsylvania. Dairymen are also developing scientific feeding programs through the use of the Penn State forage testing program, improved pastures, high quality hay and grass silage. This results in the more economical production of milk and dairy products.

Milk is one of the great foods for maintaining the health of our people as well as for the economy of the Commonwealth. June is set aside as Dairy Month to dedicate ourselves to a great industry and to a greater consumption of milk and dairy products.

NEW SIRE PROGRAM

Like many other things, the old Dairy Association (DHA) dairy sire proving program is "changing with the times."

The dam-daughter comparison has been changed to a daughter hermate sire summary, with the official title being "USDA Sire Summary Record."

The USDA has been utilizing this new technique in evaluating the breeding value of sires for the past three years. New data processing procedures will aid in the identification and location of superior cows. This will enable artificial breeding associations to obtain better bulls through selective mating of outstanding dams and sires.

The sire summary record of bulls used in artificial breeding includes: (1) a summary of records from artificially bred daughters and their herdmates; (2) an estimate of the breeding value of each sire, and (3) a listing of all registered daughters that have exceeded their hermate average by several thousand pounds of milk. About two percent of all registered daughters should be above this level.

PRUNE PINES

If you are raising Christmas trees for profits, it is a good business to aim for top quality markets.

Home owners wishing to control the growth of pine trees may follow the same procedure as commercial producers follow in shaping their trees.

This year growth is somewhat slower than last year, so shearing pines can take place in the period from middle June to August 1, after the new branches finish growing.

Spruce and fir may be sheared in late summer, fall or winter.

In general, trees should be sheared for the first time when they are two to three feet high.

LBJ Takes Boat For Run On Lake

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson is spending a quiet weekend at his ranch, and one of the first spots he headed for after he arrived Friday was Lake Lyndon B. Johnson.

At the lake, which is several miles from the LBJ Ranch, the President took a speed boat for a run, with a woman water skier in tow part of the time.

Johnson wore a plaid sports shirt and yellow cap, which soon went overboard in the breeze. A Secret Serviceman fished it out and the President gave it a good shake and put it back on. Later the boating party shifted to a cruiser.

The Johnsons are expected to return to the White House Sunday night or Monday.

Seek Swimmer In Susquehanna

HARRISBURG (AP) — About 150 rescue workers searched the Susquehanna River today for an 18-year-old Harrisburg boy, missing and presumed drowned. Police identified the youth as Charles McCarthy, a senior at Bishop McDevitt High School, who disappeared Friday while swimming with five companions.

This is usually the third year after planting. Then they need yearly treatment up to the year of harvest.

USE SHARP SHEARS

A sharp hedge shears with eight or nine-inch blade is an efficient tool for shearing Christmas trees. A new tool now being used is a light butcher knife with a 12 to 14-inch blade and razor edge. Special safety precautions must be taken when using this tool.

The top leader of the tree is usually cut to 10 inches in length, at a 45 degree angle. This eliminates spindly growth at the top. If there is a double leader, remove the weaker one or cut back far enough to suppress its growth. Other top branches should be cut six inches long. Limbs over the rest of the tree are sheared back so that the taper of the tree is about half as wide as it is high. Don't make the beginner's error of shearing only the upper branches; this makes a squat tree, too wide and sparse at the bottom.

4 Armed Masked Men Rob Railroad Station Of Five Gold Bars Worth $164,000

LARDER LAKE, Ont. (A) —

Four armed, masked men overpowered a railroad station agent in this remote northern Ontario community Friday and made off with five gold bars worth $164,000, police reported. The bandits were believed to have fled in a float-equipped plane that took off from Larder Lake, about three miles from the Ontario Northland Railway station.

The bars were awaiting shipment to the Canadian mint in Ottawa, S.C. Yule, manager of Kerr-Addison Mines Ltd., at Virginiatown, Ont., said gold bars are shipped every Friday from the mine at Virginiatown to Larder Lake, 11 miles away.

He said the station agent, Thomas Tomkin, is left alone with the shipment for about four hours until it is put on a train.

Tomkin, 35, was the only person in the station when the bandits burst in. They tied him to a railway handcar.

He said the men wore masks and carried pistols, shotguns and rifles.

The bars were packed in two safes and weighed about 300 pounds.

The empty safes, a shotgun and a mask were found in the getaway car which was abandoned on the shore of the lake.

Children Learn Leader's Names

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first words Cuban children learn in school are "Fidel," "Raul," "Che" and "Revolution." Juanita Castro told the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

These are the first words that appear in their textbooks, the self-exiled woman said Friday in testifying on Communist indoctrination in Cuba.

Her brothers Fidel and Raul Castro are the prime minister and the chief of armed forces, respectively. Che is the nickname of Ernesto Guevara, the minister of industries.

The American Bar Association was formed in 1878.

Newly Promoted

Grissom was command pilot for the first manned Gemini mission. Cooper is scheduled to command a seven-day mission in late August.

RELIVE SPACE FEAT

The promotions came after McDivitt and White relived their space feats during a two-hour news conference televised and broadcast nationally.

White said he had no sensation of falling when he stepped from the speeding Gemini capsule for his walk 105 miles above the earth.

"I will try to describe it as best I can to you," said White in answer to a newsman's question. "There was absolutely no sensation of falling. There was very little sensation of speed, other than the same type of sensation that we had in the capsule, and I would say it would be very similar to flying over the earth from about 20,000 feet.

NO FALLING SENSE

"You can't actually see the earth moving underneath you. I think as I stepped out, I thought probably the biggest thing was a feeling of accomplishment of one of the goals of the Gemini 4 mission. I think that was probably in my mind. I think that is as close as I can give it to you. I am sorry I can't give you a feeling of falling or anything, because it just wasn't there."

The printed word is more reliable than the spoken word and it cannot be refuted because it is easily available for rechecking. More accurate information is obtained by reading than listening.

Katz said he'd been in the numbers business for 25 years before quitting in 1962 "because the pressure was getting too big for me."

In earlier testimony Meyer Sigal, also a convicted numbers operator, said he paid Maloney about $179,550 for police protection from 1958 to 1963.

The government contends that Maloney failed to report more than $230,000 in income for the years 1958 through 1963.

Counsel for Maloney, Harold Gondelman, continued to hammer away at testimony of the gamblers Friday in an effort to discredit them as "liars and perjurers."

The trial will resume Monday.

The Latin "carretta," forerunner of the modern cart, originally meant a two-wheeled vehicle.

RECESS TRIAL IN BOOK THEFT

HARRISBURG (AP) — The trial of two men accused of conspiring to take books and periodicals from the Scranton Public Library is recessed until Monday.

On trial are James S. Rizek, New Brunswick, N. J. book dealer, and Richard F. Caverly, former librarian at the Scranton Library.

The case is being argued in U. S. District Court before Chief Federal Judge Michael H. Sheridan of the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

The government charges that Rizek and Caverly transported some of the missing material across state lines and disposed of it in other states.

Some of the publications involved belonged to the federal government.

Friday's testimony centered around microfilm deals that witnesses said were made by Rizek.

Franklin D. Crawford, a former business associate of Rizek, said their company sold microfilm to the Scranton Public Library and the same film later showed up at a second firm owned by Rizek.

Crawford said Rizek told him the film had been defective.

ANNOUNCING A NEW BIG LAKE FOR YOUR YEAR 'ROUND USE AND ENJOYMENT

Construction Began This Past Wednesday

LAKE HERITAGE

(3½ Miles from Gettysburg, Pennsylvania)

150 ACRES OF SURFACE WATER—OVER 5 MILES OF SHORELINE

COME OUT AND WATCH AS OUR CONSTRUCTION CREW

works around-the-clock building roads, boat docks, recreation areas and the tremendous dam that will impound the waters of Plum Run. You will be amazed at the progress that takes place day by day. Be a member of our "Observation Crew" . . . it's fun to watch while others work building Pennsylvania's newest and finest Private Lake Development.

DRESS INFORMALLY—WEAR YOUR BOOTS

bring the kids along . . . the whole family will enjoy watching "just for kicks." You can walk the lake basin now that will soon be brimming over with the sky blue waters of big Lake Heritage! But Please, observe safety precautions and stay clear of the earthmoving equipment that's busy building this fun-place for your second home.

LAKE HERITAGE WILL OFFER YOU PRIVACY IN THE

company of good neighbors. None of the facilities at Lake Heritage will be open to the general public. Use of this new recreation wonderland will be restricted to property owners and a limited number of their invited guests. If you want to escape from the crowded conditions that exist in public access areas, you owe it to yourself and to your family to own a cottage site near woods and water!

LAKE HERITAGE IS BEING BUILT BY THE NATION'S

leader in resort development, American Realty Service Corporation of Springfield, Massachusetts. Our company has the enviable record of having built over 40 successful lake subdivisions in 28 states since 1946! American Realty's record of integrity is your assurance of a first-class resort with the best in lasting features. A plot of the entire development is available for you to see at the Lake Heritage Reception Center!

LAKE HERITAGE . . . THE COUNTRY CLUB

of private resorts will feature wide hard surfaced roadways throughout the development. Included for your recreation will be a Boardwalk Promenade, lighted at night; Boat-Docking Facilities; Waterskiing; A Swimming Pool, Tennis Court, Shuffleboard, Dance Pavilion Complex! A series of picnic groves will encircle the lake approximately every 1,000-feet. These areas will be equipped with brick fireplaces for outdoor cooking, and family-size picnic tables.

INFORMAL PROPERTY RESERVATION APPLICATION

BRING OR SEND $50 MINIMUM AS PARTIAL RESERVATION FEE

LAKE HERITAGE, P.O. Box 420
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania

Sirs: Enclosed is my partial payment reserving first-choice of preferred property being offered only to residents of Gettysburg and Adams County. I understand that this is a conditional payment, based upon my being accepted for membership in Lake Heritage. It is COMPLETELY REFUNDABLE if I am not entirely satisfied! This reservation fee will be accepted by Lake Heritage as part of the down-payment on a cottage site of my choice. A special consideration will be made for me through prompt use of this reservation application.

THIS COUPON EXPIRES JUNE 30, 1965, OR AFTER FIRST 400 MEMBERSHIPS HAVE BEEN APPROVED BY LAKE HERITAGE.

HERE IS WHAT LAKE HERITAGE WILL OFFER YOU . . .

If you have always dreamed of owning a cottage on a beautiful lake, remember this: You'll never have a better opportunity to purchase waterfront property on a big and clean new lake with vacation living this close to home. Lake Heritage will make instant vacations just as everyday as walking out your own front door! We are stocking Lake Heritage with brood fish, any good fisherman knows what brood fish are. There will be a Central Water Supply . . . you don't need to drill a well. Also included will be electricity and telephones, a fabulous children's playground, boat marina and launching ramp, a Private Property Owners' Association that will assure you of no undesirable intruders. In all, there will be 750 acres in the development area with an insured title available on the property you purchase. All lots are affordably priced and financed on the spot.

WE REALLY DIDN'T WANT TO SHOW LAKE HERITAGE THIS SOON. . . WE WOULD RATHER HAVE WAITED UNTIL THE BEAUTIFUL AND OUTSTANDING FEATURES WERE PLAIN FOR YOU TO SEE! ### Windom Pestered By Fans To "Marry Katy"

By RUTH E. THOMPSON

Twice upon a time (within the last century, that is) chaps named William Windom have gained unto themselves prestige as congressmen from Minnesota. Their faces, also, have been seen by millions.

Now William the first was for real about the whole thing and served in the House of Representatives from 1859 to 1883. After that he became secretary of the Treasury and got his picture on two-dollar bills.

His grandson, William, the second, of course is only playing at it in "The Farmer's Daughter" opposite Inger Stevens. And a darned good job he's doing too. As Congressman Morley, who finally got around to courting Katy this season he comes off almost as starchy as his Victorian grandpop. And it is hoped that ABC that the millions who see Bill Windom in the series will increase still more with the move to 9:30 p.m. Mondays (effective June 21.)

"Yes, in a way I do look like pictures of my grandfather. I'm trying to be thinner, though. He had the figure of the period. That about ends the resemblance, though. His humor, I'm afraid, was sternly Quaker."

The present-day Bill Windom, however, has a sense of humor that's both daft and deft. Were it not that he prefers sailing and roughhousing with his still-new three daughters he'd be spending his vacations making movies in the polished type of comedies that now fall to, let's see, Jack Lemmon, Gig Young and Rony Randall.

"I don't know what determines the life span of a series but I hope this one goes on forever," is the way he clarifies his own career goals. The widowed congressman falling for his sons' governess is OK by him.

He's relieved, though, that marrying Katy is being written into this year's script. "Practically all the mail I get it from young girls who ask the same question: 'WHY don't you marry Katy?' "

Yes, yes, yes! By Thanksgiving, after a few more problems, Congressman Morley is going to marry Katy, his children's governess in "The Farmer's Daughter." It should cut down some of the teen-age haranguing mail Bill Windom, who portrays Morley, has been receiving. Windom, who costars opposite Inger Stevens in the title role, is the grandson (and namesake) of an actual Congressman from Minnesota.

Now that's settled. At least somewhat. For as Windom adds: "Not that there won't be a few hurdles left. Obviously. The wedding is around Thanksgiving which means about 10 episodes precede it. Have no idea what the writers have in mind. Matter of fact I don't even know if there's any truth to the rumors that the show will go into color."

If there's to be more competition, though, he added a little wistfully, he'd appreciate a little variety. "Inger had the interesting ones. Two Arab princes, an old boy friend from back on the farm. . . . As for me, except for the flashback where Inger played a dual role as Morley's dead wife" too (and did it beautifully), all I got was 'scheming socialites.'

"I have no idea if they plan following the original story line so that Katy runs for Congress sometime. Nobody tells me much and nobody asks much of me except that I show up shaved, sober and on time every day. Sort of like a horse in a tack room. They take over from there; supply the entire wardrobe and the makeup."

EARLY DESIRE

There's a legend battling around that Bill Windom is an actor just because it's an easy way to make a living. The facts don't bear this out, though. The acting bug bit him when he was a World War II paratrooper and director Richard Whorf recalls that Windom fought hard for his first role. He has since appeared in over 50 stage productions, 18 of them on Broadway.

The contention that his life was pretty helter-skelter holds up much, better though. At least until three years ago when he married Louis B. Mayer's granddaughter, the former Barbara Clair.

Bill attended six colleges (five in the U.S.; one in France) but doesn't know if the credits add up to a degree or not. Now he feels he's settled down.

HAD SHOES SHINED

"Look, had my shoes shined," he said pointing to the gleaming black leather. "And they're my only pair. Bought them three years ago when I had to take my girl — now my wife — to something black tie. The studio supplies my work clothes and the rest of the time I'm home or sailing the boat. And even when I'm in the boat, Barbara can see me from the living room window. 'Because it's a great big ocean but it's also a small boat and I never really go out of sight.'"

He gave away his miniature "Mutiny on the Bounty" type to a sea Scout troop. "It was a fun boat, but the worst sailer I've ever had." He's now on his fifth boat. "They call it a Malibu outrigger. Double hulls decked over. Sure we race. We have a couple of cups, a couple of plaques and a couple of races we don't mention."

The "we" pretty much means Windom and his two stepdaughters, Marjorie 9 and Debbie 7. They are, he says, both competent and serious when it comes to boats . . . but are still at the age where roughhousing on the beach is almost the most fun. "Barbara doesn't roughhouse with them at all," he explains . . . "and they can't seem to get enough of it."

ENJOYS HIMSELF

He's enjoying himself pretty thoroughly, too. "Maybe if I'd had children at 25 it would be different. On the other hand, I'm 40 now. Maybe I really appreciate them more. In fact I

Bronzed Beauties Are On Way Out

Bronzed beauty on the way out? Well, at least as far as the "only" look for a good looking young gal in the summer. Most glorious beauties on television these days, Mia Farrow and Jill St. John are sun-shimmers. They use little makeup and are unaffected in appearance but wise enough to figure out that what's tan to a natural brunette can be nothing but burning and streaking for natural blondes and red-heads. As Jill once said to me, "long before the skin-cancer scare, when I was a child in fact, I figured sun-baking wasn't for me. Funny, too, because my mother lived in it." (And incidentally, Jill's mom DID later have a case of skin cancer, happily, though, it yielded to prompt treatment.) And I'm told by a friend that Mia believes — and follows — advice given her by her mother, Maureen O'Sullivan. Quoth Maureen: "Nothing ages a woman like sun and liquor."

Lovable Lucy Just Keeps Moving Along

Loveable Lucy goes onward ... but with even more changes. Some of us still wince a little when we look at the Lucy-Desi reruns. After the divorce from Desi Arnaz, the beloved Lucille Ball kept right on delighting the audience with her new "Lucy" series. This time it's the sometime Ethel Mertz, more recently Viv, in real-life of course Vivian Vance who's checking out. Vivian has had to commute weekly for California filming and has had enough. Now she's decided to stay home in Connecticut. Gale Gordon, however, will stay on as the humorless banker.

It costs about $80,000 to train a U. S. Air Force cadet.

LOT ITEM

Used to be mad dogs and Englishmen that were daft enough to brave the midday sun, but Doris Ann, NBC Religious Program Producer, says cameramen top that. While Bedouins sat in the shade, filming in ancient sites in Jordan went on while the temperature rose to 140 degrees. "In Egypt I asked a local workman to shield a camera from the boiling sun with an umbrella. He thought we were all mad."

FALL TO BRING NEW WESTERNS

Perish the thought that Westerns are dead.

A whole new crop is now readying for harvest when the fall television season begins.

CBS has two new entries, "The Wild, Wild West," and "The Loner." NBC is coming out with "The Streets of Laredo" produced by Universal which does the network's venerable "The Virginian."

Robert Conrad, formerly of "Hawaiian Eye" will be a sleuth again this time, sort of an earlier-day James Bond. As a secret service agent in post Civil-War Days he will "use an elaborately equipped private railroad car as his base of operations." "The Wild, Wild West" is slated for Fridays 7:30 to 8:30.

"The Loner" — starring Lloyd Bridges — is the creation of television's leading playwright, Rod Serling. Bridges will be seen as a former Union cavalry officer "who heads west in search of personal fulfillment and challenge." "The Loner" will move into the Saturday night lineup in the fall, 9:30 to 10 p.m.

"The Streets of Laredo," a color production, is set in the colorful 1890's and has to do with four Texas rangers, Neville Brand, Peter Brown, William Smith and Philip Carey portray the four. "Laredo" is also planning heavy use of guest stars.

QUICK STEP

Chet Huntley, who got his first newspaper job in 1934 found himself farmed out fast to the paper's radio station as a newscaster. He estimates that since then "in terms of volume I am startled by the realization that I may have talked more than any man in my time. As for quality, others will have to judge that."

ABC Will Drop Its Paramount Label

"Paramount," one of the great names of motion pictures, took a corporate step downward at the last stockholders' meeting. Paramount Theaters and the American Broadcasting Company have long been corporately allied, but henceforth the Paramount label will be dropped and "The American Broadcasting Companies" substituted. "Though theaters remain important to us, the change reflects the predominance of the corporation's broadcasting activities," a spokesman explains.

JOINS TODAY SHOW

Whoever rumored that Sander Vanocur would be playing a lesser role in NBC's news division had it all wrong. "Sandy is getting a plum, really," says a colleague. Sandy, as a matter of fact, is. The "Today" show is naming a Washington correspondent and Sander Vanocur is it. In the days when the post was held by Martin Agronsky (who switched later to CBS) the high-level interviews were considered stature-making both for the program and the interviewer.

Just may call home tonight and gurgle at Rachel. You didn't know about her? Well we didn't get the news around much I guess. She's seven months old now and wonderful."

A happy man? Yes, except for one little thing. "There are no cast changes on 'The Farmer's Daughter.' Good thing, we all work well together. But our script boy is leaving the show, which means I have no one to play chess with. Marjorie and Debbie? Well they're good sailors, but when it comes to chess, Rachel can play just as well; she grabs the pieces and obeys them."

"Sunday" Will Change Format

By autumn, about the only thing that will remain the same with NBC's "Sunday" feature will be the name. Since its inception the program, currently hosted by Frank Blair, has followed a "magazine concept" in which the immediacy of some features was not a factor.

But the pace is to be speeded up with "greater emphasis on hard news." Instead of a host, the program will be using an "anchor man," and the spot is going to correspondent Frank McGee.

Biggest indication that the network has big plans for the forthcoming version of "Sunday" is that it's moving the time period long occupied by "Meet the Press."

"Meet the Press," meantime, is setting up for a double life of sorts.

Says the network: " 'Meet the Press' will be regularly presented from 1 to 1:30 p.m. on Sunday," and "a number of special full-hour 'Meet the Press' programs on which leading figures in the news will be guests, will be telecast in the 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. Sunday period as well as other Sunday time periods."

Rabbits Eating
Islands Away

MELBOURNE (AP) — Several islands off Australia's southern coast are in danger of washing away and rabbits are to blame, the director of the Australian Foreign Ministry's Antarctic division said today.

Dr. Philip Law said rabbits have eaten all the vegetation on Citadel, Rabbit and Macquarie islands, and the island now are eroding rapidly.

CASTING NOTES

The two newest cast members of the daytime serial "The Doctors" are both Broadway veterans. Gerald S. O'Loughlin appeared in "Calculated Risk" most recently and Luis Valdez counts "Luther" among the most recent of his stage efforts.

Beck Chapel
Lures Many
At Indiana U.

By CARL C. CRAFT

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—With a spire of copper, roof of slate and walls of native timber and gray shellstone, tiny Beck Chapel stands amid the educational skyscrapers of Indiana University to offer 20,000 students a place of meditation.

The success of this experiment in fostering an ecumenical spirit on the Indiana campus is measured by its sponsor and curator, Dr. Frank O. Beck, 93, whose gifts for the chapel total $100,000.

"This has filled an important void. We don't promote it or issue booklets on it, we don't try to prove its worth through statistics and we're not in religious education."

SPIRITUAL NEED

"We offer it as a satisfaction of the spiritual need for students—whatever their religious belief may be. I know of none like it in the nation."

Among religions presenting programs since the chapel was built in 1957 were Protestant, Jewish, Roman and Eastern Orthodox Catholic, Buddhist, Moslem, Hindu and Coptic.

The chapel has become the scene of weddings, christening services, organ recitals and memorial ceremonies. Social fraternities and sororities hold preinitiation services in it.

Beck said he has noticed that students have "come to the understanding that faith is a world concept. They have become more and more aware that the chapel is a place where they can cultivate a true love for one's brother."

When Beck retired in 1934, his career as a Methodist minister and an associate of Jane Addams in Chicago had led him through several social service missions. He also had been a traveler, teacher and student in Europe.

He returned to Indiana University, from which he had been graduated in 1894, and was asked by then President Herman Wells to organize a non-denominational religious program.

American automobiles are now offered in 343 basic models.

ULCER FLARES AT NEW SCRIPT OF 'WILD WEST'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A friend who makes a handsome but nervous living predicting television tastes and dreaming up program ideas to match them had a flare-up of his ulcer when he heard that CBS-next season will have a show called "The Wild, Wild West."

As a close student of TV ways, he is aware that a successful show one season results in a spate of imitations the next, plus some which try to combine an established form with a new trend.

Thus, evolving new series ideas often becomes almost a slide-rule operation. He foresees trouble ahead if "The Wild, Wild West" hits the Nielsen top 10: it seeks to combine, not the usual two, but three forms: the perennially popular comedy, Old West plus the new secret-agent fad.

PILOT SCRIPT

Before entering the intensive care section of his hospital, he sent me, in plain, unmarked wrapping, the following attempt to combine the Western, comedy and — here's the kicker—suds: "Marshal Place"

(Marshal Ben Ringo and his beautiful wife, Abigail, are having a cup of coffee at the bar of the Last Opportunity. A suitcase and hatbox are beside her.)

Ben: Abby, are you going to visit your ma in St. Louis again?

Abby: Ben, Ben, you're such a good man. I just don't know how to start . . . it isn't easy, Ben, because you've always been so good and understanding. . . .

Ben: Are you trying to tell me something, Abigail?

(She breaks into sobs.)

Ben (puzzled): You mean?

Abby: Yes, yes. There's someone else. Oh Ben, you shouldn't have taken the stage to Cheyenne and left me alone so much. And your best friend!

Ben: You mean . . . ?

Abby: Yes, I must tell you. I love Evil Eye Charlie and he loves me. We are going to make a new life together and neither you nor Myrna, his jealous wife, can stop us.

Ben: Why, now you just dry your tears, Abby. And you two just run along. For a few minutes I thought you were planning to run off with my trusty horse. And I sure hope you and Evil Eye have a pleasant time.

(The End)

My friend seemed unhappy, but I've just sent him a note saying I thought it was the most stimulating, creative, original outline for a pilot that I've read since someone smuggled me a new script with the working title of "Peyton Lane."

PLAN TV TOUR OF WASHINGTON

A televised tour of Washington, D. C., with the First Lady, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson herself, as guide, will be presented on ABC this autumn. The same city, but a different view (in-depth look at Congress) will be documented by NBC's David Brinkley. But for sheer heights, CBS has the entry. "Americans on Everest" will be the first of the four specials in color by the venerable National Geographic Society. Orson Welles will be the narrator and the award-winning David Wolper, the producer.

TV Dialing Around With R. Thompson

What Price Hollywood? Jimmy O'Neill, "Shindig" emcee — a bright talented lad — came to Hollywood at 20 with a ready-made success — image as a disc-jockey and a promoter. Yet, from the advanced age of 25 he looks back with a shudder and recalls, by the time he was 21 (a year-and-a-half after he hit flickerville) he says he was $10,000 in debt. "I fell for every scheme in town," he explains. Now very well ahead of the game indeed, Jimmy intends to stay that way. He figures it'll be easier this time because now he's married and his lovely Sharon hates freeloaders.

"Soap Operas" Now "Serials" Rising Again

What was once sneered at as "soap opera" is now referred to by its formal name, "serial," and day or night it's making news in television circles.

For night-time serial addicts, "Peyton Place" (as of June 25) again leads the way. It's increasing from two nights a week to three nights (Tuesday, Thursday and Fridays will all be 9:30 to 10 p.m.).

Over at CBS the two-nights-a-week "Our Private World," companion to the long-run daytime, "As The World Turns," seems to be making viewer inroads.

But for a real-switch around, you can't beat "The Nurses." A once-a-week night time CBS offering, often with excellent scripts, the format of the Plautus Production changed in the past season name-wise to "The Doctors and the Nurses." Now everything is changing again. In the fall the show will first: Change networks and move over to ABC. Second, it becomes a five-day-a-week half-hour show. And — third — it reverts to its original name, "The Nurses."

Viewers should appreciate the simplification — clarification really. NBC has a long-run daytime serial titled "The Doctors," which is going as strong as ever.

RENAME SHOW

Importance of title to a series is also evidenced by another ABC decision. This time it's to re-name one of their own still-new daytimers. As of June 28 "Flame In The Wind" gives way to "A Time For Us." According the ABC, in addition to its new name, the erstwhile "Flame . . ." also gets "a new time period and a new emphasis." The new time will be 2:30 every afternoon. The new emphasis concerns "the dreams and ambitions of two young, vivacious sisters, Jane and Linda Skerba." Jane stays in their small hometown "secretly envious of Linda who's attempting to build a career in New York as an actress." Secretly-envious Jane also "struggles to gain the affections of Steve Reynolds, Linda's former fiance."

And, if rumors presage the truth, the rapid multiplication of serials has really only begun. The evolution of practically every daytime drama is whispered as a sure bet for a night-time version.

HONORED

Frank Bourholtzer, chief of NBC's Moscow bureau, was honored by the Overseas Press Club for "best television reporting from abroad" for his handling of a previous assignment. Drawing the plaudits was his filmed account of the struggle by the Yemeni Royalists against Nasser's United Arab Republic.
